2009 Art is Ageless™ Entry Invitation

TO: All Artists 65 and older in Harvey County

FROM: Noelle Dickinson, Director of Marketing
Allie Hopkins, Activity Director

Jennifer Sheeran & Jennie Etheridge, Wellness Center

SUBJECT: 2008 Art is Ageless 28th Exhibit/Contest

We are pleased to announce Presbyterian Manor's 2008 Art is Ageless™ 28th Juried Exhibit. The Art is Ageless Exhibit and preliminary judging will be held at Presbyterian Manor in Newton.

Artists age 65 and up, from throughout the Presbyterian Manor service area, are invited to participate in the exhibit and competition. For those who wish to enter their work for the 28th Art is Ageless competition, an entry form and rules are attached. Please read these carefully for deadlines and contest rules. Please be sure to fill out a single 2008 entry form for each work submitted. Contact Noelle Dickinson if you need more entry forms at (316) 283-5400, ndickinson@pmma.org. Artists have the option of joining the exhibit without competing in the juried portion of the show.

Your artwork and entry form must be received in the marketing office by August 6. We will host the exhibit from August 14 to August 20. An artists' reception and awards will be held Thursday, August 14 at 3 p.m. Gallery talks and special events will also be held in conjunction with the exhibit.

Judges will award first and second in each category as applicable, with options for 3rd place and/or honorable mention depending on the number of entries. The first place works will be photographed to send to the home office for judging to select works for the 2009 calendar and cards. Systemwide winners will be selected by the judges from the digital pictures presented, and winning works will be forwarded to the Home Office to arrive by September 18 for photography.

Please keep in mind that only a limited number of artworks will be sent to Home Office following the systemwide judging as we are now judging local winners from digital photos. We encourage you to enter the juried exhibit.

Thank you for your interest in the 28th Art is Ageless Exhibit. Your enthusiastic participation has contributed to the longevity of Art is Ageless within the Presbyterian Manors' system of 17 not-for-profit active living and wellness communities.

2008 Art is Ageless™ Juried Exhibit Rules

1. All entries must be the creation of an artist who was 65 years of age, or older, when the work was created.
2. Works are to have been completed since January 1, 2003 (in the past five years).
3. Artists are limited to three entries, no more than two in a single category for the juried exhibit. (Artists may enter other categories for the works that will be on exhibit only and will not be judged.)
4. Categories are:
 - Drawing
 - Painting
 - Photography
 - Sculpture/3-Dimensional
 - Needlework
 - Fiber Arts
 - Mixed Media

5. Categories are defined as follows:

DRAWING—pencil, pen and ink, colored pencil and chalk pastels are the types of works that should be submitted in this category. Works for the local exhibit must be at least matted.

PAINTING—watercolor, acrylics, oils that are of original creation by the artist. Painting kits will not be accepted in this category. Works for the local exhibit may be framed and matted. Works on stretched canvas should be framed.

PHOTOGRAPHY—5 x 7 or larger black and white prints, color prints, digital prints (directly from the camera, print may not have been re-touched). Digital camera photos must be printed on photo paper. Submissions should not have been digitally/electronically altered using PhotoShop or other computer photo re-touching software. Works may be hand-colored and should be identified as such. Photos should be matted for display.

SCULPTURE/3-DIMENSIONAL—clay, bronze, wood, stone, metal, cloth, among other materials should be submitted in this category. The primary consideration will be whether this is a 3-dimensional work. Works in this category must be original creations, not from a kit.

NEEDLEWORK—embroidery, quilting, crewel, needlepoint, are among the items to submit in this category. Pieces completed from a kit will be accepted and should be noted on the entry form, along with any modifications you may have made to the pattern or pieces. Needlework is a single category, we ask for clarification on the entry form whether the work is an original design or from a kit. It is also helpful since the contest judging is via photo, to note whether a quilt is hand-stitched or machine-stitched.

FIBER ARTS – The Fiber Arts category encompasses works created with knitting needles, crochet needles, rug hooking, and other fiber creations not using a sewing needle. Fiber Arts also includes macramé and weaving. Afghans, crocheted table cloths and other works of this nature are appropriate for this category. Please note on the entry form if the work is created from a pattern or is an original design.

MIXED MEDIA/CRAFTS—collages, china painting, scrapbook pages, woodworking, dolls, and other works not covered by the other six arts categories should be entered here. Please note on the entry form if work was created from a kit.

6. Works which have won recently in Art is Ageless local competition (first place or Best of Show) may be exhibited, but are not eligible for judging in the competition. This allows for others to have the opportunity to win. A work which won two or more years ago, but was not selected in the system competition may be re-entered in the juried show.
7. Please submit a completed 2008 Art is Ageless entry form attached to each artwork entered. Works to be entered should be provided to Noelle Dickinson by August 6 at Presbyterian Manor, 1200 E. 7th, Newton.
- 8. Please be sure that the 2008 entry form is filled out in its entirety, including biographical information and specific identification of the Manor/Village (i.e., Farmington, Wichita) at which you are exhibiting.
9. The local juried exhibit is the preliminary judging phase.
10. Digital photos will be taken of first place works in each category and the Best of Show for the Manor/Village exhibit will be forwarded to Presbyterian Manors of Mid-America's Home Office to be judged for the 2009 Art is Ageless Calendar. Works will be judged in early September with winners lists provided to each location no later than September 12.
11. Works selected as winners for the Calendar, Runners Up, Note Card, Christmas Card, Anniversary Card or Birthday Card will need to be forwarded to Presbyterian Manors' Home Office to arrive no later than 5 p.m. September 18. Some parcel carriers may not offer insurance for works mailed with glass, so please check with the carrier with which you will be shipping the artwork. Works selected for the calendar or cards must be sent via insured carrier to be covered in the event of damage in transit. In the last four years, however, careful packing has seen the safe arrival of works to the home office and returned to their owners.

12. 2009 calendar and card works to be photographed may be personally delivered to the Home Office in Wichita, Kans. by 5 p.m. Sept. 18.
13. Shipping costs for winning works to be photographed will be covered by Presbyterian Manor locations. Artist is responsible for ensuring proper packing to prevent damage in transit. An insurance form is required for works sent to Home Office. Please attach copy of professional appraisal or bill of sale of comparable work, if applicable to assist in establishing value of the artwork.
14. Typically, one to four works may be selected from a single location in the finalist judging for photography for the calendar and cards.
15. Works selected to appear in the calendar will be represented as close to the original as possible. Keep in mind that these works will be scanned or photographed and, as a result, the colors or appearance of the work may differ from the original when printed.
16. All works forwarded to Home Office for photography will be returned after the calendar is printed, and no later than November 30, 2008.
